

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR SPRING SEMESTER 2022

who is innovisor?

We are an elite, boutique consultancy that specializes in informal networks and emotions within organizations. We have built our international clientele mainly through social media and delivered our data-based insights and actionable recommendations in a digital environment!

We pride ourselves on our culture of helpfulness and prioritize having fun together. It is also important to us to make an impact. As a global leader within our field, we actively integrate SDGs 4 & 5 - Quality Education & Gender Equality - into our strategic road map and daily operations.

what are the internship opportunities?

We want to make your internship a win-win experience. Your skills and competencies within marketing and communications help us accelerate into the future, while it also allows you to grow professionally by taking ownership of your area of responsibility. Together we will build your internship based on your strengths and interests, so let us know which area(s) you can help us with:

GRAPHICS DESIGN

- Re-design client-facing materials according to brand identity
- Development and integration of new CX-optimized deliverables

DIGITAL COMMUNICATION

- Develop multi-channel social media content for inclusion and equality campaign
- Technical Search Engine Optimization (SEO) of Innovisor website
- Content Search Engine Optimization (SEO) of existing Innovisor digital content

SOCIAL SELLING

- Improve in-bound sales process in a global market, including enhanced client engagement and contact conversion rates who are we looking for?

- A likeable colleague with a can-do attitude, who enjoys working together as a team
- A creative self-starter who enjoys taking their ideas from inception to execution
- Experience with B2B communication is an advantage, but not a requirement
- You are ambitious about the learning experience of your internship
- You are an excellent communicator, fully fluent in English
- Your internship is part of a university degree

what do we offer?

- We trust our people – so as an intern with us, you will be given responsibility and autonomy to do things your own way, while having the support needed to learn & grow
- A fun, informal, and international team – our office language is English!
- Pragmatic approach to starting date and internship length
- Hybrid work model – we combine work-from-anywhere with our office in Lyngby to ensure flexibility

how do you apply?

Please send a short letter about you and what internship areas you are interested in, together with your CV to job@Innovisor.com

We invite candidates as applications come in.
